Sophisticated. Summery. Chic. Whether you're throwing a bridal shower or a baby shower, using black and white gives you a neutral backdrop for an accent color of your choice. We chose a yellow accent color, which allowed us to incorporate lemons into the décor as well as the food and beverages. Time to make mimosas!

► SOPHISTICATED BACKDROP

Black and white honeycomb linens allow the flowers and fruit decor to pop. Since it's summer, think "light" when planning the menu.

▲ DIY MIMOSA

Let your guests customize their mimosa with different sliced fruit.

▲ OUTSIDE IN

Lounge furniture, boxwood hedges and large umbrellas lend a feel of an easy garden party and makes everybody feel right at home.

▲ THIRST TOWERS

Iced sweet tea, lemonade and water are must-haves for any summer Texas social.

▲ COMPLEMENTS

Serving individualized quiches provides a savory complement to the Champagne.

▼ PUNCH OF COLOR

Yellow ranunculus are small enough to be used on tables while packing a big yellow punch of color.
