3: A bouquet of wildflowers gives the “Rachel” gown by Claire Pettibone an understated look, which is idyllic for the setting our bride is in.

4: The meandering river stretches for miles behind our beautiful bride wearing the “Seville” gown by Claire Pettibone and holding a bouquet of wildflowers and grasses.

5: With a watercolor painting by Momental Designs behind, our bride is a vision in the “Rachel” gown by Claire Pettibone.

6-8: Wooden director’s chairs with canvas covers give the exact feel this “Painter’s Wedding” reception demands. The table is set with stunning flowers by Intrigue Designs, linens by La Tavola and tabletop rentals by Posh Couture Rentals. The hand-painted cookie favors top off this table with the perfect whimsy and detail it deserves. The copper, mirror-finished menus reflecting the sky

9: This watercolor invitation was created with heavy ink and individually applied gold spatter. Stationery by Momental Designs and calligraphy by Kelle Anne McCarter of designsgirl.

10: Painted wood veneer place cards with ink details by Momental Designs and calligraphy by Kelle Anne McCarter of designsgirl are superbly fitting for this celebration.
