

Artist Kristy Rice of Momental Designs and a talented team of vendors transformed the destination of Yellowstone National Park. They created a “Painter’s Wedding,” including a contrasting color palette used sparingly to allow nature’s bounty to be the true focal point.

1: Model Terasina Bonanini is a vision in the “Seville” gown by Claire Pettibone. Her bouquet of foraged flora found on-site lends itself to the rustic elegance of the look.

2: The bountiful centerpieces of mixed floral by Intrigue Designs pairs perfectly with the linens by La Tavola and tabletop rentals by Posh Couture Rentals. Table and chairs provided by Yellowstone Under Canvas.
