(From Previous Page) 11: Our model floats across a grassy field in the “Rachel” gown by Claire Pettibone, holding a bouquet of wildflowers with Yellowstone Under Canvas as her backdrop. This “glamping” venue offers luxury-rustic tents with down comforters, wood stoves and comfy vintage seating.

12: A mountain watercolor painting paying homage to the beautiful surroundings that are Yellowstone, acts as the backdrop to this vintage silver platter adorned with personalized, hand-painted sugar cookies, art created by Momental Designs.

13: A wooden cake table is topped with a two-tiered confection created by Whipped.

14 & 15: Our reception table centerpiece was designed to mimic the feel of wild lupine growing in a field with understated, modern linens by La Tavola, golden flatware, purple glass goblets, china and chargers by Posh Couture Rentals, hand-painted cookie favors and copper menu cards by Momental Designs. 16: Our bride looks contemplative and stunning in the “Luella” gown by Tara LaTour holding a wildflower bouquet.

17: Painted wood veneer place cards duplicating the soft, yet vibrant color palette are a perfect fit for our celebration of nature’s bounty. Created by Momental Designs.

18: A simple up-do and twirling drop-waisted blush “Luella” gown by Tara LaTour with an oversized bouquet of wildflowers complements the sprawling fields of Yellowstone.
